A introduction to

Zookini Ceramics

with Jenny Orchard

A renowned ceramicist, Jenny Orchard has exhibited widely in Australia and internationally, participating in shows in Germany, Japan, Italy and the USA. She has lectured in ceramics at various tertiary colleges including the University of New South Wales, Sydney College of the Arts and the National Art School, Sydney.

As the main artist in the 2011 Children's Exhibition Zookini, Orchard has created earthenware clay creatures in vibrantly coloured glazes. Zookini will be exhibited from 15 April to 10 July 2011.

In a two and a half hour session, Orchard will give an overview of her practice and techniques in ceramics. Participants will create an animal totem sculpture from clay that is an individual expression of their personality.
