

Unravelling Rope

A Metaphorical Journey

Dana Green

Exhibition Opening: Friday, 16 September, 6.00pm eMerge Media Space, School of Creative Arts Complex, James Cook University, Townsville

Unravelling Rope: A Metaphorical Journey

Dana Green

Unravelling explores images of rope as a metaphor for life's journey. The exhibition celebrates key events and turning points encountered along the way by looking at the aesthetic nuances in the imagery and nature of rope.

This exhibition fulfils a component of the Bachelor of New Media Arts Honours Degree and will be officially opened by Associate Professor Stephen Naylor.

Exhibition Opening Friday: 16th September at 6:00pm

Exhibition Duration: 16th September - 30th September 2011

Front Image: The Promise, pencil